John,
Based on our conversation today, I cut down the letter (attached in CLEAN and track changes versions). For the most part, I just cut language Lily and Brianna already reviewed, with the exception of slightly changing the second sentence in the last paragraph. Let's see if we can get this out by COB Monday.

I do think the deleted text could be useful in other communications with the Navy. So, let's keep that handy.

Best,
Yolanda

Enrique,
I hope all is well with you. Please find attached a letter reinforcing the importance of getting the go-ahead on the background work at Hunters Point. As we project schedules, we are seeing potential impacts with rainy season delays. We are also waiting for the 5 yr review language that the team understood was coming. Thanks for your continued involvement in this important project.
Thanks, Laura
